Randy is your average gamer. He sits around all day accomplishing nothing at all. Cheese Whiz practically runs through his veins. His mom said he needs to get out and find a real girl and not one of his anime body pillows.

- Randy had no idea where to begin. He rarely leaves his house so he is unfamiliar with events or locations where he can meet new babes. He loves anime, food and games so he wants to find places where he can enjoy his interests

After doing some research he discovered the app Findr. This app locates nearby events, stores, and places that suit your hobbies and interests. Randy can't wait to try it out and go breath some fresh air.

Randy used the app frequently now and discovered there is a massive anime convention in his city! Randy practically rolled out of his chair when he heard the news. He can't wait to go meet the real girls and their awesomeness.

Randy is now a hot playa with many girls who share the same hobbies as him. He lives his life every night now that he always has something to do. Randy's life has been changed thanks to the findr app.

"Why does no one like duck herding?" He would cry out often by himself. He didn't even know that much about his hobby or what he was doing with his life. He was just withering away in his apartment.

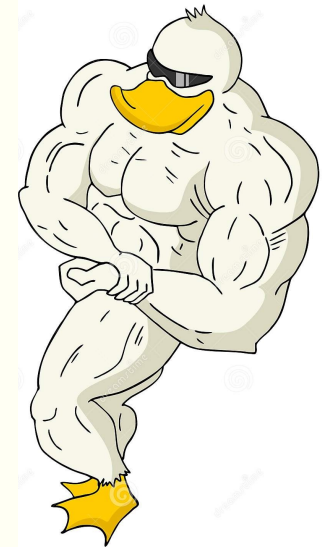

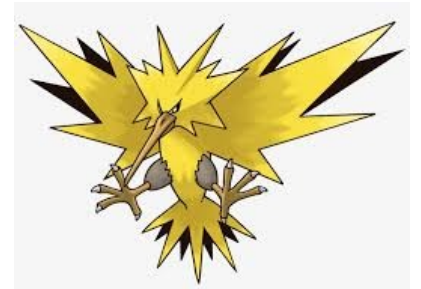

One day while scrolling the internet by himself like he often did he saw an ad for an app called findr. An app that finds locations related to your hobby near you and helps you meet other people with similar interests

With this app
Henry was able to explore his knowledge of duck
herding and go out in the world and explore

After using the app for some time, Henry met similar people and made lots of friends. Henry was even considered the duck herding master by some and lived the rest of his life happily, always finding new places to capture and herd ducks.

Emma is a normal teenager.
She plays soccer and volleyball for her high school. Her and her friends often find themselves with nothing to do in their small town.

Emma and her friends have been searching for things to do in their free time. They are always stuck in the same routine of hanging out at one of their houses, but they really want to branch out and do something different.

Emma came across the app Findr. Findr is an app that uses your location and interests to find activities around you. She instantly was flooded with options of things that her and her friends could do for fun.

Using this app Emma discovered many things to do and met many new people. Her and her friends went on many adventures and had plenty to do. One thing Emma and her friends did was go to a local zoo.

After using the app for a while, Emma and her friends were able to connect with other kids their age and go with them to various places. They made a lot of new friends and were able to go to a lot of new places. They no longer felt bored or stuck in their small town, and knew if they ever needed something to do they could just check Findr.
